MAITE NKOANA MASHABANE WOMEN MINISTER SEEKS VOICE TO BOOST EMPOWERMENT

FOR WOMEN IN AFCT OF SOUTH AFRICA

Paris, Washington DC, Zanzibar, 25.02.2021, 01:11 Time

USPA NEWS - The minister emphasized the importance of extending the benefits of the AfCFTA to both formal and informal sector women, disability and youth enterprises. South Africa's Minister of Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities, Ms Maite Nkoana-Mashabane, today called for women's voices to be heard in the implementation of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) agreement. Ms Nkoana-Mashabane spoke during a virtual conference on leveraging the agreement to boost women's economic empowerment jointly organized by the African Trade Policy Centre (ATPC), a unit of the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA); and Business Unity South Africa (BUSA), a private sector organization.

South Africa's Minister of Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities, Ms Maite Nkoana-Mashabane, today called for women's voices to be heard in the implementation of the African Continental Free Trade Area (AfCFTA) agreement.

Ms Nkoana-Mashabane spoke during a virtual conference on leveraging the agreement to boost women's economic empowerment jointly organized by the African Trade Policy Centre (ATPC), a unit of the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA); and Business Unity South Africa (BUSA), a private sector organization.------

It is therefore critical for women's voices to be taken onboard in the implementation of the trade pact, "[?] she said.

The outcome of the conference will be used to support the design of gender-responsive measures that will help to build back better in a post-COVID-19 economy, accelerating delivery on the 2020-2030 African Women's Decade of Financial and Economic Inclusion. The AfCFTA promotes entrepreneurship and economic empowerment opportunities for women-owned businesses through increased access to new regional export markets and expanded opportunities across key sectors. With the exception of Eritrea, the remaining 54 member-countries of the African Union (AU) have signed the treaty establishing the AfCFTA among which 36 have ratified the agreement.
